Title	The Plan to Sell the War; Born in the USA; When Dreams Begin Again

Expanded context:

want their babies " Born in the USA. " And, long before the Gulf war began, the American public was against it. But a Kuwaiti girl's story helped change the tide. NAYIRAH al-SABAH: October 1990 I saw the Iraqi soldiers come into the hospital with guns, and they took the babies out of incubators and they took the incubators and left the children to die on the cold floor ANNOUNCER Her charges- Rep. HENRY HYDE, (R), Illinois: January 1991 Babies from their incubators! ANNOUNCER: -echoed in political debate. Pres. GEORGE BUSH: November 1990 Babies pulled from incubators and scattered like firewood across the floor ANNOUNCER But did it really happen? Was the story hyped as part of a slick PR campaign? ABC News correspondent John Martin investigates " The Plan to Sell the War. " Plus, women, isolated, shut off from the world, their children virtually written off. KAREN EARLS: It just feels like nobody likes you, there's nobody in this world that cares about you ANNOUNCER But incredibly, against the odds

Title	Hutton: No pampering for this tough-minded crew of Calumet College ...

Expanded context:

1, 2018. (Photo provided by Colin Terrill) # The list of what Sexson can't offer seems longer that what he can. Calumet doesn't have dorms or a meal plan. # No one has a full scholarship. # According to Sexson, " everyone here is paying something out of pocket. " # What he sells is a tough conference and an opportunity to star. # All his players have Chicago or Northwest Indiana roots. # The good start is a surprise. # Three key players finished their eligibility last season -- Devin Harrison, an NAIA All-American; Michael Brooks, their starting point guard; and Jose Ramirez, their biggest player. # Because there's so much transition, Sexson is never sure what he has until the season starts. # " I knew we were athletic and we had some talent, " Sexson said. " These were mostly secondary players, though. " # Assistant coach Chris Artis was surprised, too. # " I did not expect this at all, " he said. " Our guys
